Attachment "A"

While at secondary inspection, CBP Canine Officer P. Del Bosque conducted a K-9 search of the 1980 Ford Fairmount and the K-9 alerted to the presence of narcotics on the passenger side front fender of the vehicle. Further inspection of the vehicle revealed a compartment in the AC compressor which resulted in the discovery of one (1) bundle wrapped in cellophane tape which contained a dark substance that field tested positive for heroin. The total weight of the 1 bundle of heroin was .78 kilograms.

In a post Miranda interview, QUIROGA admitted he knew there was black tar heroin concealed in his vehicle and that he was going to be paid $1,500 to transport the black tar heroin to Houston, Texas. QUIROGA admitted he had been smuggling heroin in to the United States for several years and indicated the last time he successfully smuggled heroin in to the United States was approximately three (3) weeks ago.
